DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS¹

On August 22, 2019, Michael Postlewait ("Petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration after receiving an influenza vaccine on September 16, 2018. (Petition at 1). On May 27, 2021, a decision was issued awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. (ECF No. 24).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, dated June 28, 2021, (ECF No. 28), requesting a total award of $11,763.93 (representing $11,039.50 in fees and $724.43 in costs). In accordance with General Order No. 9, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. (Id. at 2). Respondent reacted to the motion on July 1, 2021, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award are met in this case does not object to Petitioner's request. (ECF No. 29). Petitioner did not file a reply thereafter.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). I award a total of $11,763.93 (representing $11,039.50 in fees and $724.43 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
